8. ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE

A requester requiring access to information held by Status must make the request in the prescribed form (Appendix A) and submit the request, together with the prescribed fee, to the Status Information Officer at the postal address or physical address above.

- 8.1. The prescribed form must be completed in full together with enough details to enable Status to identify:
 - 8.1.1. the record(s) requested;
 - 8.1.2. the identity of the requester;
 - 8.1.3. the form of access required, if the request is granted; and
 - 8.1.4. the postal address or fax number of the requester
 - 8.1.5. The requester must:
 - 8.1.5.1. provide whether the record is required in order to exercise or protect a right; and
 - 8.1.5.2. provide details of the nature of the right to be exercised or protected
- 8.2. Subject to Status rights relating to extensions in terms of the Act, it will process the request within 30 (thirty) days of receipt.
- 8.3. The said 30 day period during which the information officer must decide whether to grant or refuse the request may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the request is for a large number of records, or the request requires a search for information which cannot reasonably be obtained within the original period of 30 (thirty) days. The information officer will notify the requestor in writing should an extension be sought.
- 8.4. If the request is made on behalf of another person, the requestor must submit proof of the capacity in which the requestor is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of Status.
- 8.5. The completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record. Such application may furthermore be subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within the ambit of certain categories as specified in the PAIA act, chapter 4.
- 8.6. Should it be reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to records by means of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings will be instituted.

9. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

Status may refuse a request for the information on, inter alia, the following basis:

- 9.1.1. The mandatory protection of privacy of third party who is a natural person in order to avoid the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party, including a deceased individual.
- 9.1.2. The mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party, if the records contain:
 - 9.1.2.1. trade secrets of that third party;
 - 9.1.2.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, other than trade secrets, of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interest of that third party; or
 - 9.1.2.3. information supplied in confidence by a third party the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to -
- 9.1.3. to put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations; or to prejudice that third party in commercial competition.
- 9.1.4. Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of third party if the disclosure of the record would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence to a third party in terms of an agreement.
- 9.1.5. Mandatory protection and safety of the individuals and protection of property.
- 9.1.6. Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings.
- 9.1.7. The protection of Status commercial activities including, without limitation, records that contain:
 - 9.1.7.1. Status trade secrets;
 - 9.1.7.2. financial, commercial, customer, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to Status commercial or financial interests;
 - 9.1.7.3. information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected:
 - 9.1.7.3.1. to put Status at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations; or
 - 9.1.7.3.2. to prejudice Status in commercial competition.
 - 9.1.7.4. Computer programs owned by Status.
- 9.1.8. The mandatory protection of research information of Status or a third party, if disclosure would expose the identity of Status or the third party, the researcher or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage.
- 9.1.9. The request for access to a record of the body is, in Status reasonable opinion, manifestly frivolous or vexatious or amounts to a substantial or unreasonable diversion of resources.

10. FEES

- 10.1. The completed access request form must be submitted via e-mail and must be addressed to the Information Officer as indicated in section 4 above.
- 10.2. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:
 - 10.2.1. A request fee, being a standard fee; and
 - 10.2.2. An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and costs, as well as postal costs.

10.3. When a request is received by Status it will, by written notice, require the requester, to pay the prescribed non-refundable request fee (R100,00), before further processing the request.

10.4. Payment details can be obtained from the Information Officer as indicated in section 4 and can either be made via direct deposit or EFT. Proof of payment must be supplied.

10.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee (Appendix B) for reproduction, search, preparation and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in the request form. Should the search for the record be made and the preparation of the record for disclosure would require more than the hours prescribed for this purpose, Status undertakes to:

10.5.1.1. establish whether a deposit must be paid

10.5.1.2. withhold a record until the requester has paid the prescribed fee (and deposit where appropriate).

11. REMEDIES AVAILABLE UPON REFUSAL OF A REQUEST TO ACCESS

Status will provide the requestor written notice of its decision to decline the application. The decision of the Information Officer will be final since Status does not cater for internal appeal procedures.

The requester may apply for relief by lodging an application to a court of law against the refusal of the request, within 180 days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief.

12. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DOES NOT EXIST

If a record cannot be found or does not exist, the Information Officer shall by means of an affidavit or affirmation notify the requester. Such affidavit or affirmation will encompass full account of steps taken to locate the record in question.

13. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT

13.1. Purpose of POPIA

The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA) regulates and controls the processing including the collection, use and transfer of personal information relating to identifiable, living, natural and juristic persons.

13.3. Reasons for processing of personal information

Status do and will process Personal Information which belongs or is held by a Data Subject to allow us to perform the following (without detracting from the generality hereof):

- 13.3.1. to pursue their business objectives and strategies;
- 13.3.2. to comply with a variety of lawful obligations, including without detracting from the generality thereof, to carry out actions for the conclusion and performance of a contract as between Status and the Data subject;
- 13.3.3. to put in place protective mechanisms to protect the Data Subject's and / or Status legitimate interests including the performance of site surveys, site audits, risk assessments and risk profiles where applicable and necessary;
- 13.3.4. to obtain as required by law or to protect the respective party's legitimate interests;
- 13.3.5. to obtain or provide Personal Information from a credit bureau or credit provider or credit association, information about certain Data Subject's credit record, including personal information about any judgement or default history;
- 13.3.6. for the purposes of making contact with the Data Subject and attending to the Data Subject's enquiries and requests;

- 13.3.7. for the purpose of providing the Data Subject from time to time with information pertaining to Status, our officers, employees, services and goods and other ad hoc business related information;
- 13.3.8. to pursue the Data Subject's and / or Status legitimate interests, or that of a third party to whom the Personal Information is supplied;
- 13.3.9. for the purposes of providing, maintaining, and improving Status Products and Services, and to monitor and analyse various usage and activity trends pertaining thereto;
- 13.3.10. for the purposes of performing internal operations, including screening of candidates, appointment and management of employees, employee wellness programmes, the performance of all required HR and IR functions, call centres, customer care lines and enquiries, attending to all financial matters including budgeting, planning, invoicing, facilitating and making payments, making deliveries, sending receipts, and generally providing commercial support, where needed, requested or required;
- 13.3.11. for the purpose of preventing fraud and abuse of Status processes, systems, procedures and operations, including conducting internal and external investigations and disciplinary enquiries and hearings.

13.4. Storage, Retention and Destruction of information

- 13.4.1. Status will ensure that the Data subject's personal Information is securely stored electronically, which for operational reasons, will be accessible to certain authorised persons within the Company on a business basis, save that where appropriate, some of the Data Subject's Personal Information may be retained in hard copy and stored securely.
- 13.4.2. Appropriate technical and organisational measures will be taken by Status to ensure that Personal Information remains confidential and secure against unauthorised or unlawful processing and accidental loss or destruction or damage.
- 13.4.3. Once the Data Subject's Personal Information is no longer required due to the fact that the purpose for which the Personal Information was held has come to an end and expired, such Personal Information will be safely and securely archived for the legally or regulatory required prescribed periods or longer should this be required by the company. The company thereafter will ensure that such Personal Information is permanently destroyed.

13.5. Access by other and cross border transfer

Status do not allow third party service providers, competitors, employees and any other entity to use any of our data for their own purposes but may have to disclose Personal information to the following:

- 13.5.1. Subsidiaries
- 13.5.2. Organs of state, regulators or government officials
- 13.5.3. Product of third part service providers

We will ensure that such data disclosure be subject to a non-disclosure and confidentiality agreement.

Status does not operate internationally and will therefore not transfer data internationally.

Should the Company, however, commence operating globally and candidate personal data is transferred to other countries, the same data protection standards will be applied to its operations globally.

13.6. Request procedure

Customer rights as per this policy caters for the following, among others:

- 13.6.1. Be informed regarding what data is being held, and why;
- 13.6.2. Any time access to the personal data we hold;
- 13.6.3. To be able to rectify errors in the data;
- 13.6.4. To request the erasure of the data being held.

The Data subject may therefore, upon proof of identity, request the Responsible party to confirm, free of charge, all the information held by Status and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information.

Application to obtain such information can be made by means of the process as described in par 8 in this manual (Access request procedure)

POPIA provides for a Data Subject to object, at any time, to the Processing of personal information by the Responsible Party, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such Processing. In order to object, the Data Subject must complete the standard Objection form (Appendix C) and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address set out in section 4 of this Manual.

POPIA provides for a Data Subject to request the Responsible Party to correct or delete personal information about the Data Subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the Data Subject that the Responsible Party is no longer authorized to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

POPIA provides for a Data Subject to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information. In order to request such correction or deletion the Data Subject must submit the standard Rectification form (Appendix D) to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address set out in section 4 of this Manual.

13.7. Policy review

Status reserve the right to review, revise amend or replace the contents of this Privacy Policy at any time in the event of changes to the legal requirements relating to personal data protection comes into force.
